

Whereas, Norman Glenclo and Ina Lorene (Kisor) Nation have been together ever since that blissful day on December 22, 1934, when they began their new life together as husband and wife by exchanging their sacred nuptial vows during a beautiful wedding ceremony officiated by the Reverend J.T. Smith, at his home in Vandalia, Missouri; and

Whereas, Norman and Ina Nation, cherished residents of Vandalia, will commemorate the truly joyous occasion of their Seventieth Wedding Anniversary with a special celebration on December 18, 2004; and

Whereas, during their seventy wondrous years as partners in marriage, Norman and Ina Nation have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include three sons and daughters-in-law, Donald Lee and Marlene Nation, Marlin Ray “Marty” and Margaret Ann “Peggy” Nation, and Larry Glen and Nancy Nation of Vandalia; eight grandchildren and their spouses, Brenda Ann and Don Robson, Warren Nation, Rick Nation, Julie and Edward Becker, Jolene and Bruce Newsome, Kelly and Mickey Mink, Keith and Nickie Nation, and Wesley and Kimber Nation; ten great-grandchildren, Nicole Sweet, Michael, David, and Megan Becker, Jeramiah and Emma Weinstein, Bryan Mink, Mitchell and Molly Nation, and Haley Beckwith; and two great-great-grandchildren, Alexander Gage and Julian Ray Holtkamp; and

Whereas, the son of William Albert and Clara Louise (Vatterodt) Nation, Norman Nation provided a comfortable home and secure future for his loved ones through his successful endeavors as a farmer; and

Whereas, the daughter of Charles William and Angie Price (Waugh) Kisor, Ina Nation distinguished herself as a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker who worked with her husband on the farm and was an employee of a local shoe factory, Princess Café, Elzea Egg Company, and Pearson Clothing; and

Whereas, Norman and Ina Nation undoubtedly look to the future with optimism as a truly amazing couple whose love will last an eternity:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Norman and Ina Nation for their success in attaining this most significant milestone in their married life and in wishing them only the best as they continue their journey together forever walking hand-in-hand along life’s path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Norman Glenclo Nation, as a measure of our tremendous esteem for them.
